State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The conditions of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

HEAD'QRS SECOND MIL. DIST., CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 1, 1868.

SPECIAL ORDERS, NO. 1.

[Extract.]

1. For the prevention and detection of crime, the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt Counties, North Carolina, are authorized, respectively, to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriffs of the said Counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and colored, in the ratio of registered voters.—The persons so employed must, in all cases, be intelligent, sober and reliable men, of good moral standing in the community from which they are selected. The number to be employed and the rate of compensation will be determined by the Court, which is authorized to appropriate from any money in the County Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum necessary to defray the cost of maintaining this force, or to levy a special tax for the purpose of defraying the same.

The names of the officers and members of this police force will be reported to the Commanding Officer of the Military Post in the limits of which the County is included, and all changes that may be made will in like manner be reported.

All persons so appointed and acting must wear openly upon their persons some badge or other evidence of their appointment and authority to act.

The force herein authorized will be under the general supervision of the military authority, and military assistance will be rendered whenever it may become necessary; but this must not be construed as in any way relieving the civil authorities from the obligations imposed upon them by law.

* * * * * * *

By command of Bvt. Major-General ED. R. S. CANBY:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC, Aide-de-Camp, A. A. A. G.

By the above Special Order No. 1, dated Jan. 1, 1868, it will be seen that Gen. Canby, not satisfied with the laws made by our legislative authority, continues the work of amending them to suit his own views.

It is known that murders, robberies and other high crimes, perpetrated by armed banditti, have been frequently committed of late in these four counties. It is known that the immediate actors have generally been negroes, stimulated, no doubt, by bad white men behind the scenes. Lately, large numbers of them have been arrested in the counties of Lenoir and Pitt—some 15 or 20 of them,—and are now in jail; and the Governor has ordered a Court of Oyer and Terminer and appointed a Judge to try them. It is believed that the most plenary proof against them can be produced; but it is feared many of the bands are still at large, who, from apprehension that the trial of the parties captured may disclose evidence implicating them, as well as from sympathy for their associates, may attempt the forcible rescue of those in prison. As the constitutional right of organizing the State militia is denied to us by act of Congress, our act of Assembly, chap. 87, sec. 5, providing in such case for a detail of militia to guard the jail, is rendered nugatory. It is understood that the Attorney General and the Governor have applied to the military Commandant of the Post of Newbern, to furnish a guard for the jail in Pitt county, where most of these prisoners are confined. Whether the guard has been sent is not known here.

This order No. 1 purports to look to the establishment of an armed police for the prevention and detection of crime in these counties. Nearly all of these prisoners are negroes. Their latest offence was the murder of an old quiet citizen, named Briley, in Pitt, and the plunder and sacking of his house,—their actual leaders being two white men, not present at the commission of the murder. It is known that these murdering negroes will have the sympathy of all mean men, ("loyal," in Radical vernacular.) To give two out of many instances showing this: Carney Spears, a negro, was convicted in the Superior Court of Buncombe, at last Spring Term, of three high crimes—two of them being horse-stealing. He was defended by a "loyal" lawyer, Mr. Henry, under whose advice he pleaded guilty to the horse-stealing indictments. There has been no pretext that he was not guilty, but the Solicitor and the Court consented to his discharge, on condition that he would secure the costs. He got a responsible man to come into Court and confess judgment for the costs, and was thereupon discharged and went to work for his employer. A Freedman's Bureau man, stationed there, moved by his sympathies for this do-nothing son of Africa, reported the hardship of his case to the Post Commander, who had the negro brought before him, heard his representations, and thereupon required the Clerk to mutilate his record, suspending or reversing the judgment for costs, and ordered the negro to quit the service of his security. Upon appeal, we learn that Gen. Canby (with letters from the Judge and Solicitor before him, showing these facts) affirmed the judgment of this subordinate, whereby this persecuted African is free to go whither he pleases without punishment and without paying costs—and all this without any pretext of wrong on the part of the Court or its officers! The pretext was that his security was not allowing him adequate compensation for his labor.

The other is relief from punishment to a negro named Henderson Cooper, convicted, in 1864, at Spring term of Granville Superior Court, of rape on a white woman. He and another negro severally committed this devilish deed on the woman, in presence of her little daughter. Upon the representations of a sympathetic Freedman's Bureau man, Gen. Sickles issued an edict setting aside the proceedings of the Court, on the alleged ground that grave doubts existed as to the fairness of his trial, and that the proceedings of the Court (being a "rebel" Court) were null and void. The negro was retained in military custody some months, and then tried and convicted by a Court Martial, and sentenced to be hanged. This sentence Gen. Canby set aside, on the ground that the Court Martial had not rightful jurisdiction of the case; but affirmed the decision of Gen. Sickles, declaring the proceedings of our Court null and void—notwithstanding the ordinance of our Convention, in 1865, validating all the proceedings of our Courts during the war and up to the date of the ordinance, not conflicting with the Constitution and laws of the United States. The negro was remanded, by order of Gen. Canby, to the Superior Court of Granville, to be tried under a new indictment to be hereafter preferred. It would be an insult to the understanding of the General to suppose he did not know that, on a trial under this new indictment, the villain must be acquitted on the plea of former conviction.

Now who are the sheriffs, who are to organize this loyal police force, "to be composed of loyal citizens, white and colored in the ratio of registered voters"—the registered negro voters in most of these counties, if not in every one of them, being largely in the majority? So this police force must consist principally of negroes, and the balance of less worthy men, it being what "loyal" means, according to the Radical Dictionary. But who are these sheriffs? Beginning with Jones:

Some six weeks ago, the Sheriff of Jones was removed,—no reason for the removal being assigned. The old Sheriff has endeavored, in vain, up to this time, to find out upon whose complaint, or for what alleged cause, he was removed. One Colgrove, who came here as an inferior officer of a New York company of cavalry and settled in Jones about two years ago, was appointed Sheriff and required to give bond and take the oath of office. At the same time, without any reason assigned, 17 Justices of the Peace were removed, in that County, and their places filled with the names of new comers and approved Radicals,—one of the number being a brother of the new Sheriff, and another Northern insolvent like himself. The court met to receive the bond. The sureties offered, residents in the County, owned no real estate or other visible property which could be reached by fieri facias; and one Hubbs, a merchant in Newbern. Whether this man has any substantial property or not, was not shown to the court. It is known that he has suffered his note for less than $400 to be protested in bank, has not paid it since, so far as we learn, and his creditor, who will sue on it, and is denied the right, by a recent order, to exact bail, as provided by our laws, is expecting the common fate of our credulous people who trusted these Northern adventurers. No proof was offered to the court to show that the obligors were worth the penalty of the bond. It is not probable that the principal, or any of his sureties, is worth a dollar. But even the bond offered, had it been good as to the responsibility of the obligors, was not proved to have been executed by those purporting to have signed it. Of course, the court refused to receive the bond. The next day, or very soon thereafter, an officer, claiming to act under orders from the Past Commander of the District, appeared in the Clerk's office with Colgrove, the newly appointed Sheriff; a U. S. stamp was affixed to the aforesaid paper, purporting to be a bond, and the clerk, under the order of said officer, administered the oath of office, and thereupon Colgrove was declared and proceeded to act as Sheriff of Jones; and in compliance with the orders of the aforesaid officer, the old Sheriff delivered into the hands of this new appointee, his tax lists, on which was due the sum of $5,000 or thereabouts. The old Sheriff had paid the amount due the State on these lists prior to the end of the fiscal year, 31st. September, 1867, so that the balance of State tax due on these lists was due to the old Sheriff.

The new Sheriff is still acting—nothing further having been done, in relation to his official bond, although Gen. Canby was informed of the material facts above stated many weeks ago. Such is the Sheriff of Jones.

In Craven, as in Jones, the Sheriff elected by the people, a most estimable man, every way well fitted to fill the office, was removed by the military, and a Mr. Fleming, another Northern man, who took up his residence in Craven, at or about the close of the war, was appointed Sheriff. Of his antecedents nothing is known here; but as the most worthy Northern men who have settled here, since the war, uniformly refuse to make haste to fill the offices of the country, it is fair to presume that he belongs to the class who delight in oppressing a distressed conquered and impoverished people.

The Sheriff of Lenoir is a native,—was a secessionist,—but has been endeavoring, and has probably succeeded, in ingratiating himself into favor with the negroes and Radicals. Allow the creation of one fact to sustain this assertion: A negro, a few months ago, broke into a store in Lenoir and stole therefrom a lot of goods. The store was then set on fire and burned down. The next morning, a part of the goods were found in this negro's possession. He alleged he had bought an article, specially identified, of a merchant he named.—He was indicted for larceny, not arson, and tried before Judge Warren. The merchant, of whom he said he had bought the aforesaid article, proved he had never sold it to him. The proof of his guilt was plenary. The jury convicted him and no respectable man, white or black, has been heard of who did not approve the verdict. Judge Warren sentenced him to six months imprisonment. It was known that the negroes, entitled to register in this county, were much more numerous than the whites who would be allowed to register, and that if the Reconstruction acts should be carried out, the negroes would control in the next election of Sheriff. The Sheriff,—no other citizen joining him in it, and without the knowledge of any other white citizen, is believed,—addressed the Freedman's Bureau Agent in his county, a long letter purporting to set forth the facts proved on the trial, but carefully suppressing the most material part of the evidence, concluding with his opinion that the negro was wrongfully convicted, and that the sentence was unduly severe, and praying the Freedman's Bureau man to order his discharge from prison.—This officer deemed it inexpedient to grant the prayer of the petitioner, without consulting his superior officer. It went up, through the regular channels, to Gen. Sickles, who referred it for investigation and report to Gov. Worth. His investigation disclosed the foregoing facts, and, to the surprise and chagrin of the Sheriff, disclosed to the people of his county this petty scheme. "The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley." To the credit of Gen. Sickles, he refused to interfere.

The Sheriff of Pitt is ex-Gen. Laffin, of the U. S. Army. The regular Sheriff of Pitt was removed by our military ruler and Laffin appointed in his place. He was appointed one of the poll holders at the late election for members of the Convention—was, himself, a candidate for a seat in the Convention; and, the registered negroes being largely in the ascendant over the registered whites, was, of course, elected.

These four Sheriffs are the officers designated to "organize and employ an armed police force to be composed of loyal citizens," white and black, acting together—the negroes being the more numerous class. Even in the loyal North the white and black soldiers act separately. This force is to be paid out of the County Treasury, to wear a distinguishing badge and be under the general supervision of the military.

Crime has been frightfully prevalent in these counties. What else could be expected under circumstances such as we have stated?

For some time past, it is said, all the families in many parts of these counties never sleep at once. Some keep watch while the others sleep.

The same lawlessness may soon be expected in the County of Richmond. Some time ago the Sheriff was summarily removed, as usual no reason being assigned for his removal, and another appointed.—The new appointee gave no bond, and being a native, could not take the test oath. Nevertheless, he was installed in office and continue to act as Sheriff. An officer sent over there to inquire whether a man could be found to take the iron clad oath, reported that none such could be found.

It is rumored that it has been represented to Gen. Canby, by loyal men, that the best thing that can be done, is to allow the incumbent to continue in office without bond or oath, as he has hitherto acted in strict accordance with the wishes of the loyal citizens of Richmond. By the way, Richmond has always been one of the most steadfast counties in standing by the Constitution and the Union.

The above facts have come to us from the best sources. We state them, for the information of the public, and to show that the condition of affairs in our Lower Counties is such, that no reliance can be placed upon a police improvised for an emergency, when the materials from which it is to be made are mostly blacks, who are the principal offenders and disturbers of the public peace. The action of the military may be dictated by what they conceive to be a wise policy, but a properly organized white force in the State, under regular army officers, it is clear to our minds, should be employed in our present condition, to arrest the disorders which prevail in that section.

Poor old North Carolina! Afflicted by the dispensations of Providence, with scarcity of food, and with harpies, at home and abroad, gnawing at her very vitals, can any balm be found in Gilead, to soothe thy afflictions? Thank God! the awakening sense of justice and of mercy, on the part of the masses of the North, presents to our tearful vision the rainbow of hope.

SCENE IN A CONVENTION COMMITTEE.—The clerk was reading the draught of the Bill of Rights which was agreed upon by the committee, and all went on swimmingly until he reached the expression "inherent rights," when the negro member excitedly proposed that it be "equal rights."

Disgusted Conservative—"What in the devil difference does it make?" at the same time giving him a look that showed his high appreciation of the capacity of negroes as constitution makers.

White Radical—"Why certainly; the expression used is the correct one."

Negro Radical, quickly—"Why, then, make it incoherent; make it incoherent."—Whig.

The New York Citizen thinks that "a striped bass with a lemon in his mouth, and his tail tied to his dorsal fin, might as well try to swim up over the falls of Niagara" as the Radicals to succeed on negro suffrage.

MARRIED,

At the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Salisbury, on Thursday evening, the 2d inst., by the Rev. Jos. H. Wheeler, Rev. Wm. H. Wheeler, of the North Carolina Conference, to Miss Lottie Kluttz, of Salisbury.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than one-thirteenth of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C." in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance, commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured, and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

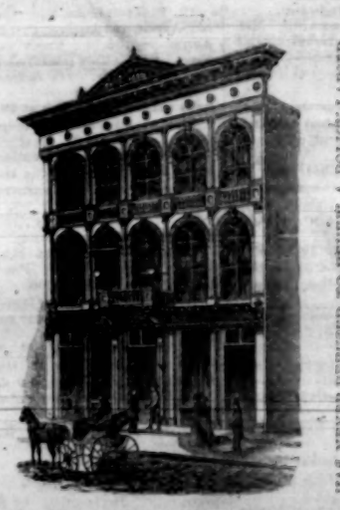
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION, A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR. AND HAS 45,000 MEMBERS.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

APPROACHING STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention, to frame a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina, has been called by Gen. Canby to meet on the 14th. of the present month. We design to report the proceedings of that body as fully and as fairly as possible. The public will be interested in its proceedings, and it will add considerably to our expenses to report them. The presumption is that it will be in session a full month. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any person who may desire it only during the session, for $1, cash in advance.

W. F. Martin, Trustee, will sell on the 14th. day of March, at public auction, in Elizabeth City, a valuable lot of land, with improvements, the property of Isaac Asher.

Marcellus Alford announces himself as a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper to the Convention.

Sundry valuable houses and lots for rent or sale: W. H. Jones & Co.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Tom. Hinton, colored, charged with stealing an axe from the store of E. J. Parish & Co., on Wilmington St., was returned to the County Court.

M. Westbrook, charged with a violation of City Ordinance, chap. 4, sec. 4, was fined $5.

THESPIANS.—The exhibition, last evening, was postponed on account of the weather. If the weather permits, it will take place this evening. The bill is by far the most attractive yet presented and deserves a full house.

MEMORIAL SEWING SOCIETY.—We are requested to give notice to the ladies of this Association, that there will be a meeting, to-morrow morning, (Wednesday,) at 11 o'clock, at the residence of the President, Mrs. H. S. Smith. A full attendance is desirable.

THE NEW YEAR'S TREE for the children of the Episcopal Sunday School, which had been postponed on account of the weather, came off, on yesterday afternoon, although the day was still inclement. Most of the children, however, were present,—and a joyous little throng they were. The Tree was loaded with good and beautiful things, and, amid its many decorations and lights, glistened gorgeously. The teachers of this flourishing school deserve much credit, not only for their efforts to gratify their young scholars, but for their assiduity and faithfulness in the discharge of their duties.

THE WEATHER is wet enough, but there has been no such dearth of local items within our knowledge.

John Montgomery, the ringleader of the gang of negroes who removed a rail which threw from the track a train on the South Carolina railroad in October last, has been tried by military commission, and sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. This sentence has, however, been mitigated by Gen. Canby to three years' imprisonment, with hard labor.

An international joke was that of the commander of the British war vessel Chanticleer, at Honolulu, who set his band playing "Dixie" alongside the United States steamer Lackawanna. The latter retorted with "Wearing of the Green."

A man in Chilicothe, Ohio, heard a commotion in his hen-house the other night, called out "who's there," received no answer, and fired into the darkness. The next morning a dead negro was found with a chicken under his arm.

The correspondent of a Radical paper in Connecticut says that the negroes about Washington can't get their share of the public work, as the "copperhead Irishmen and Germans get it all."

The Tennessee Legislature has voted to "abolish all distinctions of color." The question now is whether the blacks are to be bleached or the whites to be painted.

The Massachusetts Agricultural College has all the students it can accommodate, and the Trustees are going to ask the Legislature for $50,000 with which to erect new buildings.

Nashville has elected a negro to the Board of Education. A black-board is one of the first necessaries of a school-room.—Boston Post.

One of the Virginia conventionalists, who wears a white choker, is compared by an irreverent correspondent to a fat baby in a cream pot.

STATE NEWS.

——The "Envelope System" went into effect in the Episcopal Church at Newbern on Sunday.

——We learn, from the Roanoke News, that the Johnston lands, situated on the Roanoke below Halifax, and consisting of three or more valuable farms, were rented at public auction on Tuesday last—the same parties obtaining them that farmed them the last year. These farms rented for some $17,000 for 1867—the renters losing money owing to the low price of cotton and the short crops. This year the same land rents for fifteen hundred dollars; one farm, which rented for $7,000 last year, bringing five hundred this.

——Bishop Atkinson has arrived in Wilmington.

——A correspondent of the Newbern Republican states that, at an early hour on Sunday morning, Dec. 29th, the house of Mr. John Hodges, at Tranter's Creek, about eight miles from Washington, was entered by a negro man named John Hodges, who formerly belonged to Mr. Hodges, through a window in the dining room. The man proceeded to the sleeping apartment, where Mr. and Mrs. Hodges were both asleep, and took a trunk containing about $1,000 in specie and some State bank bills, besides deeds and other valuable papers. He escaped with his booty without awakening either of the occupants, a very fortunate thing for them, as the robber evidently had premeditated murder, if he was discovered, as he was armed with a hickory club and a bottle of spirits of turpentine, no doubt intending to fire the house, and then hide all traces of his murderous deed. The negro has been since arrested and part of the booty recovered.

——Crime of every description seems rampant in the land. To the long and fearful list, the Tarboro Southerner adds the brutal and unprovoked murder of Mr. Willis Briley, a quiet and inoffensive citizen of Pitt county, on the night of the 23rd ult. That paper says:

"The party committing this selfish deed consisted, we understand, of five negroes, three of them coming from Kinston, and the others from the neighborhood of the murder. Their object was plunder, as an assault was made upon a Mr. McCarter, who however was fortunate to succeed in escaping from the ruffians while they were attempting to tie him. Proceeding to the residence of Mr. Briley they attempted the same, but unfortunately with a more fatal ending. Mr. B. also endeavored to make his escape, and was shot dead at the buggy shelter, in the very presence of his wife and children.

After obtaining a small sum of money the rascals departed, and soon after added to their crime, by shooting another negro man for refusing to disclose to them the whereabouts of certain parties they were in search of.

We are glad to learn that the murderers have been arrested and are now lodged in the jail at Greenville."

—— The Wadesboro Argus is informed that one of the delegates to the Convention from Anson has negroes out raising money for him. He says he wants $1,000 to make a Northern trip after the Convention adjourns. The Argus advises all hands to "heave in" and give him a lift, for the reason that, if he gets the $1,000, he will never be seen in Anson again.

——Jno. Mullaly, Esq., Editor of the New York Metropolitan Record, will be in Charlotte, on the 13th. He contemplates a lecturing tour through the South. Subject: "The Yankee."

——The Argus speaks in high terms of Capt. Wm. McFarland, the Bureau agent for Anson. It says that he has dealt impartially between both races, and goes on to remark:

"But a few weeks since Gen. Miles passed through this section on a tour of inspection. Up to the time of his visit Capt. Mcfarland's office had almost grown to be a sinecure. The negroes had found that there was justice in his office for the white man as well as the negro, and had almost ceased running to him with frivolous complaints. But after Gen. M.'s visit matters changed. The negroes passed Capt. M., whose headquarters are at Rockingham, entirely by, and carried their complaints to the officer commanding at Fayetteville; and old complaints that had been settled by Capt. M. more than a year ago, were revived by that officer, and sent back to Capt. M. to be passed upon a second and third time by him. This action has subjected many of our citizens to considerable expense and loss of time, and also great vexation of spirit."

THE DESTITUTION IN THE SOUTH.

Gen. Howard will to-morrow transmit to General Grant reports from Generals Ord, Gillem, Hancock, Canby, Scott, and other officers, bearing upon the destitution, present and prospective, of the Southern States. The sudden fall in the price of cotton, together with the failure of crops, has produced great depression, anxiety, and apprehension, and it is generally believed there will be great suffering for want of food in Louisiana, Mississippi, and South Carolina, before the close of winter, and that relief, in some shape, must be afforded to prevent the anarchy that many apprehend. General Howard recommends that the attention of the President and Congress be called to the report, with a view to some thorough practical mode of relief. It is suggested that if a fund could be established for which employers might draw, on paying reasonable interest, it might afford temporary if not permanent relief. General Canby favors relief through such a fund or through the issue of provisions, taking a lien upon crops for security. It is also recommended by some prominent persons that a loan of thirty millions in currency, to be secured by bonds and mortgages and other good security, for the benefit of all States in extreme need, be made. Generals Ord and Hancock recommend the repairing of the levees of Mississippi by the Government. Gen. Howard says certain politicians have taken advantage of the suffering in the regions where destitution prevails to further their own interests, and are trying to reduce the price of labor to board merely, and thus get control of the laborers.—Wash. Cor. Rich. Dispatch.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, P. M.

House.—Mr. Upson, of Michigan, introduced a resolution, directing the Committee on Reconstruction to enquire into the expediency of authorizing the several Constitutional Conventions, elected under the Reconstruction acts, in the States lately in rebellion, to appoint all civil officers, whether State or county, in said States, to act temporarily, and until the State Constitutions shall be adopted therein, and officers shall be chosen and qualified to fill said offices, and that, for this purpose, said Conventions may remove all civil officers now acting in said States.

Mr. Boutwell moved to amend the resolution, to instruct the Reconstruction Committee to enquire into the expediency of authorizing the General of the Army to detail officers for service in said States. Also to enquire into the expediency of constituting each of said States in a separate Military District, under the command of the General of the Army; and also as to the expediency of providing additional legislation to secure the elective franchise to all: and also, to declare, by Act of Congress, that the Provisional Governments set up in said States by order of the acting President are not Republican forms of Government.

Mr. Upson accepted the amendment.

Mr. Chandler, of New York, moved to lay the whole subject on the table. Not agreed to—yeas 28, nays 66.

The resolution was then adopted.

Mr. Eldridge offered a resolution of thanks to Gen. Hancock, in accordance with the President's message. Tabled—85 to 28.

Mr. Washburne, of Wisconsin, offered a resolution, that the House utterly condemns the course of Andrew Johnson, acting President of the United States, for his action in removing the gallant soldier, Gen. Sheridan, from the command of the Fifth Military District, and that the thanks of the House are due Gen. Grant, for his letter, in August last, condeming the act of the said acting President for his removal of Secretary Stanton, as well as his endorsement of Gen. Sheridan, in relation to affairs in the State of Texas.—Adopted—yeas 82, nays 23.

Senate.—A memorial was presented by Mr. Sumner, from the freedmen of Elizabeth City, North Carolina, stating that land owners were driving them from the land that their industry had purchased, and asking redress.

The case of Mr. Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, was taken up, discussed and postponed till to-morrow.

The anti-contraction bill came up, but was postponed with the understanding that it shall come up immediately after the disposition of the cotton tax.

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death, for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assets than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has declared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen years her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the assured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to P. F. PESCUD, Agt.,

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, to a family of [illegible] two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid visitors has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they entirely resumed their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1868

From the National Intelligencer

TO THE WHITE MEN OF AMERICA.

Air—"Bruce's Address"

BY MAL. MINOR TATE.

Americans! who proudly trace
Lineage from a noble race;
Who fill a high and honored place
'Mong nations of the earth:
Where is all your freedom gone?
See! a wretched negro band
Ruling o'er your southern land,
Where white men now are slaves.

Tho' the South at battle's call,
Madly staked and lost their all,
Shall we drive them to the wall,
And crush their manhood out?
Shall a base, ignoble horde
Over white men lay the cord,
Lay in waste with fire and sword
Our Eden of the South?

Is our CHARTER now repealed,
Which our fathers' blood has sealed?
Shall we Freemen, basely yield
The birthright of our race?
Shall we stand where Judas stood—
Break the bond of brotherhood—
Force the men of our own blood
To bow to negro rule!

Lo! the land of sunny skies,
In the "gloom of Egypt" lies;
South of Washington, arise!
And save us from our shame.
By the blood our fathers shed,
By the souls of heroes dead,
God forbid it should be said:
"We've made our brethren slaves!"

Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embellished in romance or poetry, which is a real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and full discription of the work

WITH

Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embellished in romance or poetry, which is a real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

LIFE INSURANCE.

(From the Insurance Monitor and Wall Street Review, New York.)

A Well-deserved Success---The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost immemorial landmark, "Old Guerin's," the less ancient "Standinger's," and the present office-building of the American Express Company, on the Southeast corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with three adjoining buildings on the latter street, is attributable to that modern insurance giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 86 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and thirty-seven feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in perfecting plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but so arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment.—The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justify this solid investment, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although this Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an insurance amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum assured by it up to the present date approaches 100,000,000; its accumulations have run up to 5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless expand to five million dollars.

For this rapid increase and substantial success there are abundant and most satisfactory reasons. They are found in the numerous solid advantages the Company affords. In the fact that it is purely mutual, and that all its profits go to the insured on the first of February, every year, at which time a large dividend has been regularly paid, amounting last year to six hundred thousand dollars. Its mode of applying dividends so as to accommodate them to the circumstances of the policy holders, is unequalled for the variety of the advantages it offers.

The Equitable has been enabled to deal thus liberally with its insured in consequence of the prosperity of its business and the thriftiness of its management. The percentage of its "total out go," compared with its cash premium receipts, was less in 1866 than that of any older Company. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any rival institution. It insures on a single life any sum from $250 to 125,000, and issues all the most desirable non-forfeiting policies. All its policies are, however, comparatively new, and it is therefore carrying but few impaired lives. Its percentage of losses, to amount at risk, which is much less than that of older Companies, establish this fact. The Equitable is, indeed, full of vitality and progressive strength, and is regarded as the most successful and—taking into consideration its age—the largest Life Insurance Company in the world.

NEW MOVEMENT IN LIFE INSURANCE.

We learn that some of the cash companies of this City have decided to adopt a uniform scale of premiums to take effect after the close of the present year, with a view to greater simplicity and uniformity in their business. These rates have been carefully deduced from American experience, and will be more accurate and satisfactory than those hitherto used, which were based upon English statistics. The Mutual, Equitable, Washington, Widows and Orphans, Standard, and one or two other companies, have entered into this desirable arrangement. We learn also that these companies have decided to establish a system by which their rejections and other points relating to medical examination and statistics, will be made known to each other and mutual benefit derived. The contribution plan of dividend has been adopted by the companies named.

There are many other points in life insurance both theoretical and practical upon which companies conducted upon the general principles can unite for mutual aid and advantage, and yet preserve their individual organizations and independence in all other respects. Such we learn, is the leading idea governing the proposed union which cannot fail to be attended with favorable results.

Important Order from Gen. Canby

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 28th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale; and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 186 .

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant; of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contracto only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police or cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or district Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense attending such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be
